SUMMER SESSION

Thursday, June 27 - Saturday, June 29, 2013

Welcome

Council Bishop's Address

We give thanks to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for another opportunity to commune together in true worship. I am rejoicing at the realization that we have arrived at the first anniversary of the inauguration of the North Carolina District Council. What a grand year we have experienced. I would like to thank each and every Council official, delegate and visitor for your enthusiasm and support in making our first year a success.

Let us not forget the purpose of attending the Council. We come to feel a sense of belonging and connection to God and to each other. Let us strive to set an atmosphere of togetherness and communion among the congregation so that others will cry, "What must I do to be saved."

My expectation for the upcoming year is to continue to follow the leading of the Lord, to continue to love the brethren, work feverishly to maintain the unity we have established, and to see more souls added to the body of Christ. I encourage you to continue to love, grow in knowledge, and approve things that are excellent. As Philippians 1:9-10 states "And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ."

*Forever in His Service,
Bishop Otto Richardson, Jr.*

Council Bishop's Address

Council Chairman's Address

Holy greetings in the name of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,

On behalf of the Executive officers, pastors and the Executive Board "Welcome" to the first annual session of the North Carolina District Council. My heart is made glad as I look forward to this time of fellowship with the saints of the North Carolina churches and the visitors that come from near and far to mingle with us. No wonder the psalmist was able to say "O how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity". That coming together is compared to a rich anointing administered by a priest as a horn of oil is poured upon the head of an individual; likewise, we feel that outpouring of the Holy Ghost from the Lord. The writer of Hebrews makes this statement "Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is: but exhorting one another and so much the more, as you see the day approaching" (Hebrews 10:24-25). As we go about our business on a day to day basis, our focus must remain on the soon coming of the Lord and the rapture of the church.

We celebrate our first year as a functioning entity of the Pentecostal Churches of the Apostolic Faith, International. Our initial goal was to get fully functional within this first year and be ready to make a positive report to the parent body at this year's National Convention in Jackson, Mississippi. Some that started out with us are no longer present, yet I hear the Lord saying "I will never leave you nor forsake you". There have been some struggles during this first year, staff workers pressing through difficult learning curves and the meshing together of very different ways of doing things, but having obtained help from the Lord we continue until this hour. This Council will be successful as long as we keep Jesus in our view. I make an appeal to you to join in with us and lend us your voice, your expertise and your service. We are constantly on the lookout for willing workers. Our desire is to add churches to this fellowship and in order to do that we need you to represent Christ in a great way.

*Yours In Christ,
Jurisdictional Bishop G. E. Dobbin*
