

Meet the CEO's

Lionel and Sierra are the visionaries and CEO's of Divine Potential Services, Inc. These childhood sweethearts have been married since 2005 and together they have four amazing children. They understand firsthand the challenges and struggles of creating, having and maintaining a successful relationship, being effective parents and overcoming the stigma and statistics that have been placed on young families in our culture. Sierra is a certified Restoration Life Coach, Speaker and Servant of Christ. She is passionate about seeing families restored through balancing marriage, motherhood, ministry and money. Lionel is a Family and Fatherhood expert who is called to ignite dreams and activate purpose. He desires to see men walking in their rightful positions as leaders, reclaiming their life and family. This dynamic duo are on a mission to restore families and be agents of change in their community one client, one couple and one conference at a time.

About Us

Divine Potential Services, Inc.
A trusted nonprofit 501c3 organization that offers family and individual life coaching, marriage and relationship counseling, business and personal finances consulting while empowering, encouraging and educating our community through annual conferences and community enrichment events.

Mission

The mission of Divine Potential Services, Inc. is to empower, encourage and educate at risk families in our churches and communities worldwide through coaching, counseling, consulting, conferences and community enrichment events.

Vision

Divine Potential Services, Inc. aspires to see families whose lives have been impacted by trauma and grief, restored, strengthened, established and thriving.

What is Life and Family Coaching?

Managing a good family dynamic takes time, patience and practice. Life and family coaching provides families with the tools, techniques and resources to resolve conflicts, reach results and hopefully transform and restore healthy relationships and work, life and home balance.

What is Counseling?

Studies show that counseling is usually needed when difficulty and dissatisfaction arise in the marriage or relationship. In confidentiality, differences of opinions, personal values and expectations can be discussed to shift the relationship in a positive direction. Counseling usually helps reveal underlying and unresolved issues, so the relationship can begin moving towards healing. Counseling teaches couples to regulate their emotions, stay calm and use effective communication.

What is Consulting?

More and more millennials are starting, desire to start businesses, become entrepreneurs and balance and manage their finances and resources. Consultants usually offer expert advice and wisdom in making decisions that will produce lasting and long term benefits. Research shows that people who hire consultants have a greater opportunity to create solid structure and strategies with the valuable information received, so they can be empowered to succeed. A great consultant holds you accountable to your success!
